2. The snow having fallen a snow of ab<sup>t</sup> 2 Inche depth the night before I sowed thereupon, at the Meadow at Fosters, where the grass was often ly destroyed by the winter's Frost. Six pecks of Ray grass seed & three quarts of Timothy seed mixed well in ashes. —

Also sowed, from the North side of the Inclosure in the Quarter, to the Quarter with Ray grass clover, & Lucerne mixed — viz for 4. above Inclosure 8 pecks of Ray seed, 3 bushels of y<sup>e</sup> clover, & 1 bushel of the Lucerne — but the snow discommoded the wind coming out very fresh at 11 o'clock I was obliged to desist and a prodigious severe frost happened that night is to be feared y<sup>e</sup> seed all perished. —

18th Agreed to give Turner Crump one sixth part of what he can make by my Carpenters this year, which is to commence the 22nd day of Oct<sup>r</sup> being the time when he began Car<sup>r</sup> Poles work, and to give him the seventh of what he can make by them the year after —

20. finished Plowing for Oats — ab<sup>t</sup> 20 a.

22. Began Plow<sup>g</sup> and Ditch<sup>g</sup> the Meadow at George Ashfords —

Also began sowing & harrowing in of Oats also, sowed six trees in the garden — see Mem<sup>o</sup> of random of this on 10th Nov<sup>r</sup> 1797

25. sowed them in the following manner viz in y<sup>e</sup> first bed next towards y<sup>e</sup> dividing fence and which Tot<sup>o</sup> seed — in 2<sup>d</sup> bed which sowed in 3<sup>d</sup> bed sowed A. Johnsons 6th long grass
